Photo-editing tools By now you should realize that there are many image-editing programs available, but before getting into the tool you need, you should review a few key tools that can be helpful in photo-editing. * Adjustment Layers (Blends). Adjustment Layers (Blends) are simply layers that are used to make adjustments, such as lightening, brightening, and darkening, to an image. You can blend two separate images together, a photo over another, adjust the brightness of a color, or maybe even add a painting-style background to your image. See the upcoming section "Adjustment Layers (Blends) to alter the color, tone, or light in an image" for more information about this tool. * Adjustment Layers (Blends) to alter the color, tone, or light in an image. Adjustment Layers (Blends) are great for making color adjustments (lightening or darkening) or gradations in tone (tone-mapping). You can select colors in your image to lighten, darken, desaturate, or fade or bleach out and blend a color. This is a powerful tool in Photoshop, but it's a little tricky to use. If you want to know more, see the next section "Adjustment Layers (Blends) to alter the color, tone, or light in an image." * Paint Bucket Tool. Use the Paint Bucket Tool to select and copy an area of a layer's color, or range of colors, to the photo's background. You can also use the selected area as a new layer. This tool is very useful if

The Real Housewives Of New Jersey alumna Kim Richards was arrested for allegedly fleeing the scene of an accident and leaving the scene of an accident. TMZ obtained a report listing Richards and her husband, Jonathan Murray, as the named in the report filed in Ocean County Superior Court. Law enforcement sources confirm to TMZ that Richards was pulled over in the town of Stafford Court on Route 37 on Thursday, November 30. While Richards and Murray were pulled over, traffic was light, so there was not a cop on scene. The sources say on this particular day, Richards was driving a green Honda Accord that was involved in an accident with an orange Subaru Outback. It is not known at this time if the two were involved in a crash, but police said they found a car in the parking lot of a gas station that was likely damaged.
